

BORRISON IVY

WHEN IT'S OVER

t t t time out tonight
Just one too many fights
It all seemed so easy - now it's so hard to get it right

Now you've gone away
Seems I'm here to stay
Should I feel bad if I don't think of you?

How do I know when it's over?
How do I know where you've gone?
How do I know when it's time, when it's time to move on?

I miss miss miss the few good times
But want to feel I'm moving on
I want where I'm going to not be where I'm from
